

James EberspacherDirector for the National Center for DWI Courts

(NCDCC). NCDCC is the professional services branch of the National Association of Drug Court Professionals (NADCP) providing training and technical assistance to DWI Court professionals. Jim's background in the Drug Court models includes experience at the state and local levels. For seven years, he was the State Drug Court Coordinator for the State of Minnesota, providing oversight in forming Drug Court policy and strategic planning, state standards, funding, assisting in research, and providing training and technical assistance to Drug Court teams. Jim also served as the Coordinator on three Drug Court teams – DWI Court, Hybrid Drug/DWI Court and Family Dependency Treatment Court – in rural Minnesota. Prior to his involvement in the Drug Court field, Jim was a Probation Officer in community supervision and a juvenile institution. Overall, Jim has 17 years of combined experience in Drug Courts, corrections, policy development, and training/technical assistance.

Dr. Rachel LevinePA Secretary of Health

Dr. Levine is currently the Secretary of Health for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and professor of Pediatrics and Psychiatry at the Penn State College of Medicine.

As physician general, Dr. Levine made significant strides combating the opioid epidemic and advocating on behalf of the LGBTQ population. She spearheaded the efforts to establish opioid prescribing guidelines and establish opioid prescribing education for medical students. She also led an LGBTQ workgroup for the governor's office which has worked to create programs and processes that are fair and inclusive in healthcare, insurance, and many other areas. Recently, Dr. Levine was recognized as one of NBC's Pride 30, a national list of 30 people who are both members of and making a difference in the lives of the LGBTQ community.

Her previous posts included: vice chair for clinical affairs for the Department of Pediatrics and chief of the Division of Adolescent Medicine and Eating Disorders at the Penn State Hershey Children's Hospital-Milton S. Hershey Medical Center. Dr. Levine graduated from Harvard College and the

Tulane University School of Medicine. She completed her training in pediatrics at the Mt. Sinai Medical Center in New York City and then did a fellowship in Adolescent Medicine at Mt. Sinai. She then practiced pediatrics and adolescent medicine in New York City and was on the faculty of the Mt. Sinai School of Medicine. She came to Central Pennsylvania in 1993 as the director of Ambulatory Pediatrics and Adolescent Medicine at the Polyclinic Medical Center. She joined the staff at the Penn State Hershey Medical Center in 1996 as the director of Pediatric Ambulatory Services and Adolescent Medicine

Her accomplishments at the Penn State Hershey Medical Center include the initiation of a Division of Adolescent Medicine for the care of complex teens with medical and psychological problems. In addition, she started the Penn State Hershey Eating Disorders Program which offers multidisciplinary treatment for children, adolescents and adults with eating disorders such as anorexia nervosa and bulimia nervosa. She was the Liaison for the LGBT community for the Office of Diversity at the Penn State College of Medicine. In that role, she established a LGBT faculty and staff affinity group and was the facilitator for the LGBT student group.

Dr. Levine teaches at the Penn State College of Medicine on topics in adolescent medicine, eating disorders and transgender medicine. In addition, she has lectured nationally and internationally and has published articles and chapters on these topics.

Garry Metcalfe, B.S.

Garry has worked in the field of toxicology for over 16 years. He began his career working postmortem toxicology cases with the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner for the state of Oklahoma. He spent his time at the medical examiner's office testing a variety of specimens like blood, liver urine, gastric contents, bile and vitreous humor. After 12 years there he transitioned to working for the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigations (OSBI). Here his focus switched to antemortem toxicology. Here he tested mostly blood and urine for the presence of drugs in suspected DUI cases. He has been deemed an expert witness in the state of Oklahoma. While at the OSBI, he took over the administration of the Forensic Science Academy. This program was designed by the OSBI, to provide a better understanding of the test performed, at the OSBI, to judges, prosecutors and defense attorneys in the state of Oklahoma. Garry is a board member and past President of the Southwestern Association of Forensic Toxicology (SAT). He has also attended the Borkenstein Drug Course, DEA Forensic Chemist Seminar and the Midwest Forensic Resource Training Program.

Eric Olson

Eric is the District Manager for Adult and Juvenile Mental Health Courts in the State of Idaho's 7th Judicial District. He is a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor (LCPC). He received his Bachelor's Degree in Family Science from Brigham Young University and his Master's Degree in Mental Health Counseling from Idaho State University. Eric has worked as an Assertive Community Treatment (ACT) Team Clinical Supervisor for 7 years with the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare. He worked closely with community members to start the first Mental Health Court in the state of Idaho and one of five National Learning Site Mental Health Courts through the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA) and the Council of State Governments (CSG). Eric has served as the Coordinator of this Court since its inception in 2002. He also serves as the Coordinator for 4 other Mental Health Courts including the first two Juvenile Mental Health Courts in the State of Idaho. He has also worked as a Mental Health Court Consultant with the Council of State Governments for several years working with Mental Health Court programs throughout the country and assisting them in improving their programs, providing technical assistance, and applying evidence-based practices. He has also worked specifically with Drug and MH Courts in applying evidence-based principles in working with participants with Co-Occurring issues. He also specifically has worked with both Drug and MHCT programs in applying RNR principles in Treatment Courts as well as doing effective Case Planning utilizing these principles.

Angela Sobol Lowry

Angela Sobol Lowry joined the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts as the Problem-Solving Courts Administrator in February 2018. Prior to her appointment, Angela served as the Drug Court Coordinator for the Baltimore City Circuit Court Adult Drug Treatment Court and was responsible for the planning, management and daily operations of the Drug Court Program.

Before serving as Coordinator of the Drug Court, Angela was the Project Coordinator for the Baltimore City Criminal Justice Coordinating Council (CJCC). One of her major accomplishments while at the CJCC was overseeing the planning and implementation of the Fugitive Safe Surrender program, operated in conjunction with the U.S. Marshal's Service, to address the backlog of warrants in Baltimore City.

Angela began her career as a Juvenile Probation Officer in Northumberland County, PA where she worked directly with youth involved in the criminal justice system. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from Susquehanna University and a Master's degree in Administration of Justice from Shippensburg University. She resides in New Cumberland, PA with her husband and young daughter.

Robert Smulkis

Robert is a 2005 Graduate of Temple University Beasley School of Law. From 2005-2014, he was an Assistant District Attorney in the Lancaster County District Attorney's Office prosecuting Felony Drug offenses, Firearms offenses and Homicides. From 2012-2014 Robert was the Supervisor of the Felony Drug Unit. He joined the PA Office of Attorney General as a Deputy Attorney General in the Drug Strike Force Section in 2014. In 2017, Robert was named the Director of Prescription Drug Diversion Prosecutions, overseeing all Diversion investigations brought by the OAG throughout the Commonwealth.

Scott Tirocchi, MA, MS, LPC

Scott served as a military police officer in the U.S. Army Reserves and the Rhode Island Army National Guard for a combined total of twenty-one years. While deployed to Afghanistan in 2003-2004, he served as Commander for the training and doctrine component of Training Assistance Group II (advisory group) to the Afghan National Army. He retired in 2008 at the rank of Major. Scott is presently employed with the Rhode Island Judiciary where he serves in a dual capacity as Deputy Director for the District Court's Pretrial Services Unit and Coordinator for their Veterans Treatment Court Program. Additionally, he is employed as a consultant with the National Drug Court Institute and is a licensed behavioral health clinician in the State of Connecticut. Prior to his current roles, he was employed as a mental health practitioner with the RI Department of Corrections as well as Day Kimball Hospital in Putnam, CT. Professional affiliations include the American Legion, the Connecticut Counseling Association, the RI Brain Injury Association and the Military Officers Association of America, Narragansett Bay Chapter. Scott resides with his family in Providence County, RI.

Terrence D. WaltonChief Operating Officer (COO) for the National Association of Drug Court Professionals (NADCP),

Terrence is among the nation's leading experts in providing training and technical assistance to drug courts and other problem-solving courts. Prior to being named COO in October 2015, Terrence Walton was the NADCP Chief of Standards. In addition to being responsible for the daily operation of NADCP and planning the national conference, he retains his responsibility for establishing and implementing best practice standards nationwide. Previously, Terrence Walton was Director of Treatment for the Pretrial Services Agency for the District of Columbia (PSA), in Washington, D.C. During his nearly 15 years at PSA, he was responsible for directing the PSA operations that provide substance use disorder and mental health assessment, treatment, and social services for all adults released under PSA supervision in the District of Columbia. His responsibilities included overseeing the city's adult Drug Court, the DWI Initiative, the Mental Health units and various other programs for assessing, treating and supervising justice system involved men and women. Previously, he excelled as the director of what was then the District of Columbia's leading adolescent outpatient substance abuse treatment center.

Terrence Walton has directed programs in Dayton, Ohio and Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He has helped evaluate a multi-million-dollar White House Anti-Drug Media Campaign and served on the substance abuse task force as a part of the White House Best Practices Collaborative. In addition to his extensive work domestically, he has assisted addiction treatment programs in Bangladesh, Barbados, Guam, Mexico and Bermuda.

Terrence Walton is an internationally certified alcohol and other drug abuse counselor with over twenty-five years of experience helping individuals and organizations champion positive change. He holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Psychology and a Master of Social Work degree with specializations in program administration and substance abuse. Noted for his practical strength-based approaches to complex issues, Terrence Walton is actively sought out for insight on treating and supervising justice system involved individuals who are living with substance use and mental health disorders. Terrence Walton is a member of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers (MINT). A gifted and entertaining speaker, Terrence Walton travels extensively informing and inspiring audiences across the globe.